

Mathematics Emerging:

A tribute to

Jackie Stedall

and her influence on the history of mathematics

A two-day BSHM meeting at The Queen's College, Oxford, on Saturday 9 April and Sunday 10 April 2016.

The meeting will focus broadly on sixteenth and seventeenth century history of European contributions to, or developments in, algebra, analysis and geometry, with a mixture of general interest sessions and more specialist research topics. The meeting will start at 10:00 on Saturday 9 April and should finish at about 15:30 on Sunday 10 April. The Sunday morning session will focus on Thomas Harriot. There will be a reception and conference dinner in The Queen's College Hall on the Saturday evening.

Speakers include:

- Philip Beeley (Oxford);
- Rosie Cretney (Oxford);
- Robert Goulding (University of Notre Dame, USA);
- Niccolò Guicciardini (University of Bergamo, Italy);
- Karen Parshall (University of Virginia, USA);
- Eleanor Robson (University College London);
- Matthias Schemmel (Max Planck Institute, Berlin, Germany);
- Thomas Sonar (Technische Universität Braunschweig, Germany);
- Benjamin Wardhaugh (Oxford).

Register interest at <http://www.bshm.ac.uk/events>